

Nessie

New Jersey Herald
July 20, 1978
